

Immunisation Seminar

Thursday 22 March 2012

The Richard Doll Building, Old Road Campus,
Roosevelt Drive, Headington, Oxford OX3 7LF

Time	Topic	Speaker
8.30 – 9.00	Coffee & registration
9.00 – 9.10	Welcome	Tessa John Director of Clinical Trials, OVG
9.10 – 9.25	Overview of OVG studies	Prof Andrew J Pollard Professor of Paediatric Infection and Immunity, OVG
9.25 – 09.50	Child assent to clinical research participation; ethics and current research	Dr Mark Sheehan and Liz Davis, Research Nurse, OVG
09.50 – 10.25	Minimising immunisation pain	Sarah Lang Immunisation Advisor, OVG
10.25 – 10.45	Prospects for adolescent immunisation	Dr Anthony Harnden University Lecturer and Principal in General Practice, Department of Primary Care Health Sciences
10.45 – 11.15	Coffee
11.15 – 11.45	Combining the delivery of the HPV programme with dTP immunisation in a small secondary school in Bracknell	Dr Marilyn Lansley, Dee Mitchell and Jenny Gordon
11.45 – 12.15	Informing the public about immunisations	Jo Yarwood, DoH
12.15 – 12.35	Overview of typhoid study	Dr Claire Waddington, Adult Research Fellow, OVG
12.35 – 13.05	Travel health update	Jane Chiodini Travel Health Specialist Nurse
13.05 – 14.00	Lunch
14.00 – 14.30	Interactive session	Karen Ford, OVG Practice Educator/Immunisation Advisor and Jennie McKenna, Research Nurse
14.30 – 15.00	Influenza immunisation programme in schools	Dr Noel McCarthy Consultant in Communicable Disease Control, Health Protection Agency
15.00 – 15.15	Adverse events following immunisation: how the H1N1/narcolepsy story has unfolded	Dr Charlotte Barker Academic Foundation Year 2 Doctor, OVG
15.15 – 15.35	Vaccines and global child health	Dr Dominic Kelly Consultant in Vaccinology, OVG
15.35 – 16.05	Ask the panel	Prof Andrew J Pollard, Dr Marilyn Lansley, Dr Noel McCarthy and Jane Chiodini
16.05 – 16.15	Closing Remarks	